

Things to Do in Spokane

October 2, 2011 6:00 pm

Oldies but Goodies Throwback Musical 2

Unspeakable Joy Christian Fellowship

13315 W. 13th Ave Airway Heights, WA 99001

Gospel Music featuring LaSalle & Voices of Praise & choirs/groups from Spokane & the surround areas. For more information (509) 244-2722 or mrSalle25@gmail.com

October 1, 2011

OCTOBERFEST-

City Park- Downtown Harrison, ID Chase Gallery City Hall 808 W. Spokane Falls Blvd.

The festivities include food, micro-brews, home brews, children activities and live music

NOW-October 28,2011

Northwest Designer Craftsmen

Chase Gallery City Hall 808 W. Spokane Falls Blvd.

The Chase Gallery presents an exhibit by Northwest Designer Craftsmen, August 30 - October 28.

Gallery hours are 8am-9pm Mondays, and 8am-5pm Tuesdays-Fridays. The Chase Gallery is located on the lower level of Spokane City Hall and is free and open to the public. An artist reception will be held in conjunction with Visual Arts Tour on Friday, October 7, from 5-9pm.

Visit: <http://www.spokanearts.org/chase.aspx>

No End Date

Help the Hungry Warehouse Sort Night

Second Harvest Inland Northwest Food Bank Warehouse: 1234 E Front Street

Times: 5:30-7:30pm

Join more than 30 volunteers for a Help the Hungry Warehouse at the Second Harvest warehouse. Help sort and box produce, bag bulk pasta and/or sort food drive items in preparation for delivery to our emergency food outlets. You can register online by visiting our Web site at 2-harvest.org and clicking on Volunteer Your Time. For questions or help registering, please contact Julie at (509) 252-6242 or email jnesbitt@2-harvest.org.

Now- October 31, 2011

Spokane's Farmer Market

20 W 5th Ave

Spokane Farmers' Market vendors offer a wide variety of goods: baked goods, cheese and/or dairy products, cut flowers, fish and/or seafood, fresh seasonal vegetables and fruit, fresh and/or dried herbs, honey, jams/jellies/preserves, meat and/or poultry products, nuts, plants and body care products. Several of the 25 local vendors offer organic foods. Credit cards can be used to purchase tokens at a central location on-site.

October 1 & October 2

Artistry in Wood 2011

Spokane Community College - Lair Building Mission & Greene

The 22nd annual Artistry in Wood show and sale will have over 200 wood sculptures from novice to expert skill levels in the juried show. Vendors with wood, tools, patterns and books will be present along with individuals and clubs providing information and selling carvings. Participate in the large raffle and vote for People's Choice and Happiest Holiday carvings. See demonstrations. Talk to the judges, the artists and members of Spokane Carvers Association.